CASE NO.:

2. TIMELINES

☐ This appeal is filed on time: I believe this appeal is filed within the right amount of time. I understand that if I file late, the Appellate Court may dismiss my appeal.

☐ This appeal is filed late: The Tribal Court advised me that this is late, on the day of my filing, but I am asking the Appellate Court to accept it because the following extraordinary reasons prevented me from filing on time:

3. REASON FOR APPEAL

Check one box and write a short explanation.

☐ Factual Error. A mistake made by a judge or Tribal Court when deciding on the facts of the case. This happens when the decision does not match the evidence presented. If a Tribal Court judge's ruling is clearly wrong based on the evidence, it is considered a factual error.

☐ Conclusion of Law Error. When an Appellate Court reviews a legal decision from the beginning (de novo), using the Tribal Court's records but not considering the Tribal Court's conclusions or findings. This means the Appellate Court re-examines the evidence and the law independently.

CASE NO.:

☐ Procedural Error. A mistake made by a Court when it doesn't follow its own rules or properly use its authority. This happens when the Court's decision doesn't match the correct legal standards for the facts of the case. If the records show the Court used its power incorrectly, it is considered a procedural error.
